Project Information

The humanities encompass the study of all our forms of human cultural expression: history, arts, literature, philosophy, religion, laws, cultural studies, and languages. They encourage careful thought, in the process offering participants ways to inform themselves and consider multiple perspectives.

- History, anthropology, political science, archaeology, folklife and art history - the study of human social, political, and cultural development.
- Philosophy, ethics, and comparative religion – the contemplation of the meaning of life and the reasons for our thoughts and actions.

- Literature, languages, and linguistics – the exploration of how we communicate with each other, and how our ideas and thoughts on the human experience are expressed and interpreted.
- Jurisprudence – the study of the values and principles which inform our laws.
