

Pronghorn Reads Challenges

January: A book borrowed from a local public library.

February: A romance or counter-romance book. Click here to see what others have read.

March: A book by a Wyoming author

April: A book of poetry

May: A book published in the year you were born

June: An innovative book

July: A nonfiction book about a new subject to you

August: A book about Wyoming

September: A funny book

October: A collection of short stories

November: A book that takes place in a country you have never visited

December: Read the book that you have been waiting for an excuse to read

Pronghorn Reads is a program of Wyoming Center for the Book with Wyoming Humanities.